

Compassionate Care Home Health Services, Inc. is committed to ensuring that the individual needs of each client are met, thereby assisting in achieving and maintaining an optimum level of well-being while remaining in the comfort of their own home. Many of the services we provide to meet these needs are coordinated through agencies within the Aging Network. There are a number of service agencies who specialize in providing care and coordination specifically to senior citizens.

Each county in Michigan is served by an AREA AGENCY ON AGING. This organization provides case management as well as authorization and funding for in-home services for qualifying seniors and disabled persons. These services include home delivered meals, homemaking, personal care, respite, limited nursing and counseling, and limited home modifications under the MEDICAID WAIVER PROGRAM or one of their other programs.

Each county in Michigan is also served by a local COMMISSION or COUNCIL ON AGING. This agency is able to provide case management as well as funding a limited number of in-home services for qualifying seniors. These services may include home delivered meals, homemaking, and personal care assistance.

In most Michigan counties there is a second MEDICAID WAIVER PROGRAM provider authorized to fund in-home services for qualifying seniors and disabled persons. These services include home delivered meals, homemaking, personal care, respite, limited nursing and counseling, and limited home modifications.

Each county in Michigan is also served by a local DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES (formerly called the Family Independence Agency). This organization is able to provide Medicaid insurance and grocery funds for qualifying individuals. They are also able to assist with funding in certain emergency situations, transportation and are able to provide in-home personal care for qualifying individuals.

Each county in Michigan is also served by a local COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH program. This organization is able to provide in-home and community assistance for qualifying individuals.

If you would like more information about any of these organizations please contact Compassionate Care Home Health Services, Inc. We will be able to put you in contact with any of the organizations listed above.
